

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at <http://books.google.com/>

Grand Secretary's Office.

NEW YORK, May 15th, A. L. 5855.

W. BROTHER,

You are hereby notified that the Annual Communication of the M. W. Grand Lodge of the State of New York, will be opened at the Apollo Rooms, 410 Broadway, on the 5th of June next, at 7½ o'clock, P. M. Please notify your Wardens.

Fraternally,

JAMES M. AUSTIN,

Grand Secretary.

NOTE.—The Grand Secretary's office is removed to the southeast corner of Centre and Grand streets—entrance in Centre street—where the Grand Secretary will be found until 6 o'clock, P. M., on the 5th of June.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

WE would direct the attention of our readers to the Business Notices at the end of the REGISTER, and assure our friends, that any article they procure of the Advertisers will give perfect satisfaction. We are intimately acquainted with them, and recommend them to the confidence of the Craft.

To those of our Brethren who want a good suit of CLOTHING, at a reasonable price, and an excellent fit, we say, go to brother JONES, of JONES & CAIN, 139 Fulton street, and we vouch for it you will get suited, both in fit, material and prices.

And to those who want to purchase TEAS, we recommend them to go to the store of our Grand Master, JOSEPH D. EVANS, 150 Front street, where they can procure, at wholesale prices, the best article in the market.

See the advertisement of JAMES CASSIDY & Co.

INTRODUCTORY.

IN the early part of December last the compiler of this little book was advised by several of the leading masons in this city to publish a Masonic Register of the State of New York—and knowing well the value of such a work, especially to the Country Lodges, he addressed a private circular to several prominent brethren in the State announcing his intention and soliciting their views and advice. He received from every quarter the assurance that the Register would meet a ready and warm reception—and commenced his task of collecting material for its pages with the beginning of the Masonic Year. Several of those brethren who are ever ready and willing to aid in the dissemination of light and knowledge promptly replied, and furnished all the statistical information respecting their Lodges, &c.

But alas for the apathy and slackness of some Ghiblinites! They could not or would not comply with his request, although he applied to them six times, by letter, prepaid, and all in vain.

To our Right Worshipful (I hope soon to have the pleasure of saying Most Worshipful) Brother JOHN L. LEWIS, of Penn Yan, Deputy Grand Master of this State, I would here take this public opportunity of expressing my indebtedness for his unremitting interest and labors in furnishing lists of Lodges and Chapters, and other valuable masonic documents; and those masters and secretaries who have aided in the compilation of the Register will receive the warmest gratitude and thanks of

THE COMPILER.

ATLANTIC LODGE, NO. 178.

City of New York.

Meets at N. W. Corner of Bleecker street and Broadway on the First and Third Tuesdays.

No Returns received.

James Leconey,	Worshipful Master,
G. W. Steinbrenner,	Senior Warden,
Z. Dederick,	Junior Warden,
G. W. Steinbrenner,	Secretary.

I have no hesitancy in pronouncing this one of the very best Lodges in the city. Its walls are well cemented, and blocks well squared. Bro. Swartz is, indeed, a Master Tyrian.

Brethren, coming to New York, should not fail to visit Atlantic Lodge, where they will meet with gentlemanly reception, and see the Ceremonies of Masonry performed according to ancient usage.

To our mind there is no Lodge of our acquaintance that stands higher than Polar Star. In the true qualifications of its members, the respectability of their standing in society, the capacity, intelligence and moral worth of their Worshipful Master, Brother Nehemiah Peck, this Lodge certainly stands on high ground. Brethren from the country visiting New York, should make it a special order of business to see Polar Star Lodge at labor.—ED.

OF

FREE AND ACCEPTED MASONS

OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

[Adopted at the Grand Communication of the Grand Lodge, at its Annual Session, June 10, A. L. 5854, and proclaimed the law by edict of the MOST WORSHIPFUL JOSEPH D. EVANS, Grand Master of Masons of the State of New York.]

TITLE I.

OF MASONIC GOVERNMENT.

§ 1. The Government of Free and Accepted Masons is reposed :

1. In Grand Lodges ; and

2. In SUBORDINATE, or PARTICULAR LODGES.

§ 2. A Grand Lodge is a body of Masons in whom is inalienably vested the government and superintendence of the Fraternity within its territorial jurisdiction, and is primarily composed of its Grand Officers, and the Masters and Wardens, or their proxies, of the several subordinate Lodges under its jurisdiction. It may also enlarge or diminish the number and qualifications of its members at its pleasure, by a provision or change of its Constitution.

§ 3. A subordinate or particular Lodge consists of a Master, a Senior and Junior Warden, a Treasurer, a Secretary, a Senior and Junior Deacon, a Tiler, and as many members as may be convenient, congregating and working by virtue of a Warrant held under the Grand Lodge, having lawful jurisdiction over it, and at the place designated in the Warrant or by the Grand Lodge.

TITLE II.

OF MASONIC LAWS.

§ 4. The action of Freemasons in their Grand or subordinate Lodges, or in their individual character, is regulated and controlled:

1. By ANCIENT LANDMARKS; or the unwritten law of Masonry;
2. By WRITTEN CONSTITUTIONS; and General Regulations; and
3. By USAGES, CUSTOMS, RULES, EDICTS, and RESOLUTIONS, having the force of General Regulations.

§ 5. The Ancient Landmarks are those principles of Masonic government and polity, which are the only part of Masonic law or rule of government, that may never be altered or disturbed, and such of them as are lawful to be written, are usually, but not wholly, engrafted in the written Constitutions and General Regulations.

§ 6. Constitutions are those written compacts or laws adopted by Freemasons for the government of a Grand Lodge and its subordinate Lodges, and their members; including General Regulations, constitutionally adopted, that are intended to be permanent in their character.

§ 7. General Regulations, Usages and Customs, Rules, Edicts and Resolutions, are those Masonic rules of action adopted, by competent authority, for local or temporary purposes, admitting of change at convenience, and not embraced in Ancient Landmarks or Constitutions, and are frequently termed By-Laws. But when they so operate as to alter, modify, or otherwise affect the Constitutions, as defined in section sixth, they are also styled Constitutions.

§ 8. The following are enumerated as Ancient Landmarks of the Fraternity; having, as such, been universally received and acknowledged by Masons:

1. That belief in the Supreme Being, "the Great Architect of the Universe," who will punish vice and reward virtue, is an indispensable pre-requisite to admission to Masonry.
2. That the moral law which inculcates charity and probity, industry and sobriety, and obedience to law and civil government, is the rule and guide of every Mason, and to which strict conformity is required.
3. That obedience to Masonic law and authority being voluntarily assumed, is of perpetual obligation, and can only be divested by the sanction of the Supreme government in Masonry.
4. That the rites and ceremonies (which include the unwritten language) of the true system of the Ancient York Rite, and which constitute a part of the body of Masonry, are immutable, and that it is not in the power of any man, or body of men, to make innovations therein.
5. That contentions and lawsuits between brethren are contrary to the laws and regulations of Masonry.
6. That charity is the right of a Mason, his widow and orphans, when poor and destitute, to demand, and the duty of his prosperous brother to bestow.
7. That Masonic instruction is, like charity, a reciprocal right and duty of Masons.

8. That the right to visit, masonically, is an absolute right, but may be forfeited or limited by particular regulations.
9. That men made Masons must be at least twenty-one years of age, free-born, of good report, hale and sound, not deformed or dismembered, and no woman, no eunuch.
10. That no one can be made a Mason except in a lawful Lodge, duly convened, acting (except when made by the Grand Master at sight) under an unreclaimed Warrant or Dispensation, and at the place therein named.
11. That a Grand Master may make Masons at sight, in person and in a lawful Lodge, and may grant a dispensation to a Lodge for the same purpose; but in all other cases, a candidate must be proposed in open Lodge, at a stated meeting, and can only be accepted at a stated meeting following, by the scrutiny of a secret ballot, and an unanimous vote, and must pay a fixed price before admission.
12. That the ballot for candidates or for membership is strictly and inviolably secret.
13. That the petition to be made a Mason, after being presented and referred, cannot be withdrawn, after the report of committee, but must be acted upon, by report of committee and ballot.
14. That a ballot for each degree separately is an undeniable right, when demanded.
15. That initiation makes a man a Mason; but he must receive the Master Mason's degree, and sign the By-Laws, before he becomes a member of the Lodge.
16. That it is the duty of every Master Mason to be a contributing member of a Lodge.
17. That a Lodge under dispensation is but a temporary and inchoate body, and is not entitled to representation in the Grand Lodge, and those who work it do not forfeit their membership thereby in any other Lodge, while it so continues, but such membership is thereby suspended.
18. That the Master and Wardens of every warranted Lodge must be chosen annually by its members, and if installed, cannot resign their offices during the term for which they were elected; and are, of right and inalienably, representatives in, and members of the Grand Lodge; and in case they do not attend the Grand Lodge, a proxy may be appointed by the Lodge to represent it in the Grand Lodge, who in such case shall have three votes.
19. That no one can be elected Master of a warranted Lodge (except at its first election) but a Master Mason who shall have served as Warden.
20. That no appeal to the Lodge can be taken from the decision of the Master, or the Warden occupying the chair in his absence.
21. That every Mason must be tried by his peers; and hence the Master cannot be tried by his Lodge.
22. That Masonic intercourse with a clandestine or expelled Mason is a breach of duty, and an offense against Masonic law.
23. That a restoration to the privileges of Masonry by the Grand Lodge does not restore to membership in a Subordinate Lodge.

24. That a Mason, who is not a member of any Lodge, is still subject to the disciplinary power of Masonry.
25. That the disciplinary powers of a Lodge may not be exercised for a violation of the moral law, (as distinguished from the law of the land,) until the offender has been thrice admonished by the Master or Wardens of his Lodge.
26. That a failure to meet by a Lodge for one year, is cause for the forfeiture of its Warrant.
27. That it is the duty as well as the right of every warranted Lodge to be represented in the Grand Lodge, at its Annual Communication.
28. That a Grand Lodge has supreme and exclusive jurisdiction, within its territorial limits, over all matters of Ancient Craft Masonry.
29. That no appeal lies from the decision of a Grand Master in the chair, or his Deputy or Warden occupying the chair in his absence.
30. That the office of Grand Master is always elective, and should be filled annually by the Grand Lodge.
31. That a Grand Lodge, composed of its Officers and of Representatives, must meet at least once in each year to consult and act concerning the interests of the Fraternity in its jurisdiction.

Besides these, there are various Landmarks, which constitute the frame-work of the government of the Fraternity; and the indispensable discharge of various duties and relations growing out of them, which are incorporated in this Constitution; and also those matters regulating and attending the ceremonies and work of Masonry, which are not proper to be written; and various other duties and rights more fully set forth in the "ANCIENT CHARGES," which are herewith published, being a part of the Constitutions of Free Masons.

TITLE III.

OF GRAND LODGES.

§ 9. The powers and privileges of a Grand Lodge are:—

1. EXECUTIVE;
2. LEGISLATIVE; and
3. JUDICIAL.

The exercise of these powers and privileges is defined in particular Constitutions and General Regulations, which it has an inalienable right to frame and adopt at its own convenience, and to alter, amend, add to, or repeal, at its pleasure, under the limitations therein imposed; and are final and conclusive upon all parties concerned, until altered or reversed by the Grand Lodge. But nothing can be adopted in derogation of the ancient Landmarks; nor can any legislative act or general regulation be passed affecting the interests of the whole Fraternity, except at a stated Annual Communication. These powers and privileges are supreme and exclusive within its jurisdiction, over all that appertains to Ancient Craft Masonry.

§ 10. All the Executive powers of a Grand Lodge, when not in session, are reposed in its Grand Master.

§ 11. The Legislative powers of a Grand Lodge extend to every case of legislation not delegated, or reserved to Subordinate Lodges.

§ 12. The Judicial powers of a Grand Lodge are of two kinds:—

1. ORIGINAL: embracing all matters of controversy which may arise between any of the Subordinate Lodges under its jurisdiction, or the members of different Lodges, and the enforcement of discipline upon its own members, and the Lodges under its jurisdiction; and upon individual Masons; and
2. APPELLATE: embracing all matters of controversy and discipline proper for Masonic investigation, arising in any Subordinate Lodge, and over which it has not original jurisdiction.

§ 13. All Governmental powers, whether Executive, Legislative, or Judicial, not expressly delegated by the Grand Lodge, are inherent in and reserved to it, as the supreme governing body.

TITLE IV.

OF SUBORDINATE LODGES.

§ 14. The powers and privileges of a Subordinate or Particular Lodge are such as are defined in its Warrant, by the Constitutions of the Grand Lodge granting the same, and the Ancient Landmarks and General Regulations. They are divided into—

1. EXECUTIVE: in the direction and performance of its work, under the control of its Master, and in all other matters in aid of the Master, who has the Primary Executive power of a Lodge;
2. LEGISLATIVE: embracing all matters relating to its internal concerns, not in derogation of the Ancient Landmarks, the Constitutions and General Regulations of the Grand Lodge; and its own particular By-Laws; and
3. JUDICIAL: embracing the exercise of discipline, and settlement of controversies between and over all its members (except the Master), and over all Masons and non-affiliated brethren within its jurisdiction, subject to an appeal to the Grand Lodge.

§ 15. Lodges shall take precedence according to the seniority of their respective warrants.

§ 16. A Lodge can only be organized by—

1. The dispensation of the Grand Master, or Deputy Grand Master; or
2. The Warrant of the Grand Lodge having jurisdiction; and in either case only upon the application of not less than seven regular Master Masons.

§ 17. A Lodge can only be dissolved,

1. By the act of the Grand Lodge, whereby its warrant is forfeited; and
2. By a voluntary surrender of its warrant, pursuant to a vote of a majority of the members, when duly summoned for that purpose, with notice of the object of meeting.

§ 18. The acts by which a warrant may be forfeited are:

1. Contumacy to the authority of the Grand Master, or Grand Lodge;

2. Departure from the original plan of Masonry and Ancient Landmarks;

3. Disobedience to the Constitutions; and

4. Ceasing to meet for one year or more.

The surrender or forfeiture of a warrant, when declared by the Grand Lodge, shall be conclusive upon the Lodge and its members, and carries with it all the property of the Lodge, which becomes the property of the Grand Lodge, and must, on demand, be surrendered by the last Master, or whoever has its custody, to the Grand Lodge or its authorized agent.

§ 19. No warrant of a Lodge can be forfeited except upon charges regularly made in Grand Lodge, at its Annual Communication, of which due notice shall be given the Lodge, and an opportunity of being heard in defense; but it may be suspended by the Grand Lodge, or Grand Master, or Deputy Grand Master, at any time, upon proper cause shown, which suspension shall not extend beyond the next Annual Communication. No dispensation can issue to form a Lodge, without the recommendation of the nearest Lodge; nor shall a warrant be issued till the Lodge has given proof of its skill by labor under dispensation.

§ 20. A Lodge may not remove its place of meeting from the city, town, or village, named in its warrant; nor from one place to another in the same city, town, or village, except by a concurrent vote of two-thirds of the members present, at a meeting to be appointed by the summons to attend such meeting, stating its object, and which summons must be served at least ten days previous to such meeting; and such removal from the city, town or village, must receive the sanction of the Grand Lodge previous thereto. Every Lodge should meet at least once in each month for the dispatch of business.

§ 21. A Lodge has full power and authority to enact By-Laws for its own government, conformably to its Grand Lodge Constitutions and the principles of Masonry; and any By-Law inconsistent therewith is absolutely void.

§ 22. A Lodge has power to make but five new brethren at the same time; nor shall the third degree ever be conferred in a less interval than four weeks from the time of initiation, except by dispensation from the Grand Master or his Deputy, nor without proof of proficiency before advancement.

§ 23. A Lodge may not initiate any person without due inquiry, and without being satisfied, in a Masonic manner, that he has not been previously rejected, or otherwise refused admission to Masonry; and if upon inquiry it shall be so ascertained, then not until six months after such rejection or refusal; nor shall any visitor be admitted without like inquiry and satisfaction as to his regular standing, and that his admission will not disturb the harmony of the Lodge, or embarrass its work; nor can a resident of any town, village or city, where there is a Lodge, claim a right to be admitted as a visitor more than twice, unless he is a member of some Subordinate Lodge.

TITLE V.

OF INDIVIDUAL MASONS.

§ 24. Individual Masons are of four kinds:—

1. Members of a Subordinate Lodge, pursuant to its Constitution and By-Laws, called affiliated brethren;
2. Entered Apprentices and Fellow-Crafts made in or attached to a Lodge;
3. Members of a Subordinate Lodge by adoption, called honorary members; and
4. Individual Masons, not in membership in any Lodge, but subject to its control and discipline, territorially or otherwise, called non-affiliated brethren.

§ 25. Membership in a Lodge can only be acquired by unanimous consent, and in two modes:—

1. By dispensation of a Grand Master, or warrant from a Grand Lodge, in case of the institution of a new Lodge; and
2. By previous proposal, and a ballot thereon, which must be unanimous.

And no Mason can be in full membership in more than one Lodge at the same time; but this does not extend to honorary membership, nor shall a brother in full membership in one Lodge be admitted an acting member of another Lodge, without a regular and honorable discharge from his first membership, or where the Lodge has ceased to work.

§ 26. Membership in a Lodge can only be terminated:—

1. By voluntary demission;
2. By the Lodge ceasing to have a legal existence; and
3. By the suspension or expulsion of the member.

Demission is the joint act of the Lodge and the member, [but a member may withdraw to assist in forming a new Lodge, and on the granting of its warrant, ceases to be a member of his former Lodge]. Expulsion is the act of the Grand Lodge or of the Subordinate Lodge; and suspension is the act of the Lodge only.

§ 27. Full membership in a Lodge is necessary to constitute eligibility to office in a Grand or Subordinate Lodge, or to constitute and continue membership in the Grand Lodge.

TITLE VI.

OF GRAND LODGE OFFICERS.

§ 28. The officers of the Grand Lodge are elective or appointed and hold their offices for one year, or until their successors are chosen and installed.

Stewards, Senior Grand Deacon and Junior Grand Deacon (the style of all of whom is also Right Worshipful).

§ 31. The rank of the officers, both elective and appointed, is in the order here mentioned; except that the Grand Pursuivant and Grand Tiler shall take rank after the appointed officers; and an election to, and installation in, the first six elective offices hereinbefore named, constitutes them and the other elected and appointed officers, members of the Grand Lodge.

§ 32. Elective officers of the Grand Lodge must be chosen at its annual communication, by ballot, (unless it be unanimously resolved at the time to take the vote by a show of hands,) and by a majority of votes; appointed officers are selected by the Grand Master, and hold during his pleasure. It may have such additional officers as its necessities or objects require, to be provided by a General Regulation.

§ 33. Installations of the officers of the Grand Lodge must take place during the annual communication at which they are elected; and vacancies may be filled by temporary appointment from the Grand Master, till the next annual election, having reference to the precedence of Lodges, and the fitness of the brethren selected.

§ 34. Each regular member of the Grand Lodge has one vote, and the Acting Grand Master an additional vote, in case of an equal division; and each Lodge is entitled to three votes, without reference to the number of its representatives present; and a Grand Officer may vote both as such, and as a representative.

TITLE VII.

OF SUBORDINATE LODGE OFFICERS.

§ 35. The officers of a Subordinate Lodge hereinbefore named must be chosen annually, by ballot, and by a majority of votes, and be installed on or before the next stated communication thereafter. Every Lodge can provide for such additional officers, to be either elected or appointed, as may be designated by its By-Laws, and as circumstances may require.

§ 36. Every member in good standing is entitled to one vote, and every voter is eligible to any office in the Lodge, except that of Master.

§ 37. No member can be Master of a Lodge, unless he has previously been installed, and served as an elected Warden for one year, except at the institution of a new Lodge, when no Warden or Past Master is found to serve as Master.

§ 38. A Lodge may fill vacancies in office except those of Master and Wardens, by ballot, at any stated communication, upon full notice to the members; but in case of vacancy in the office of Master, an election can only be held by virtue of a dispensation from the Grand Master, which is without fee, and is to be applied for by a vote of two-thirds of all the members, to be so certified by the Secretary.

§ 39. Vacancies in office can only occur either in a Grand Lodge or its subordinates:—

1. By death;
2. By resignation;
3. By removal beyond the jurisdiction; and
4. By suspension or expulsion.

TITLE VIII.

OF THE POWERS OF OFFICERS.

§ 40. The Grand Master has power,—

1. To convene any Lodge within the jurisdiction, to preside therein, to inspect their proceedings, and require their conformity to Masonic rules;
2. To require the attendance of, and information from, any Grand officer respecting his office;
3. To make Masons at sight, in a Lodge, and may summon such brethren to assist him as he may deem necessary, and may, by written dispensation, delegate this power to a Lodge, in respect to a particular individual;
4. To grant dispensations for new Lodges, on proper application, when the Grand Lodge is not in session;
5. To appoint Representatives, by warrant, in any other recognized Grand Lodge, and receive and accredit such Representatives from other Grand Lodges; and
6. When the Grand Lodge is not in session, may exercise all its executive functions.

§ 41. In case of the death, absence or inability, of the Grand Master or a vacancy in his office, the Deputy Grand Master, Senior Grand Warden, and Junior Grand Warden, will, in succession, succeed to his prerogatives and duties for all purposes.

§ 42. The Master of a Lodge shall have the power,

1. Of congregating the members of his Lodge, upon any emergency;
2. Of issuing summonses whenever required; and
3. Of discharging all the executive functions of the Lodge.

§ 43. In case of the death, absence or inability of the Master, or a vacancy in his office, the Senior and Junior Wardens will, in succession, succeed to his prerogatives and duties for all purposes.

§ 44. No Past Officer has any powers or privileges as such, except the respect due to his standing, skill, and experience, save what is expressly given him by the Constitutions of his Grand Lodge.

TITLE IX.

OF PENALTIES.

§ 45. The Penalties imposed by the Masonic law, are:—

1. Suspension, which is either limited or indefinite; and
2. Expulsion, which always implies a termination, not only of his Masonic intercourse and connection with the body inflicting it, but from the Masonic Fraternity, unless an appeal be made.

§ 46. Suspension applies to Lodges, as well as individuals, and when inflicted upon a Lodge, it suspends all its members, unless expressly excepted. Suspension and expulsion imply interdiction of all Masonic intercourse with the delinquents while in force.

§ 47. Suspension is only inflicted where the offense is against some police or temporary regulation of the Fraternity; expulsion follows a gross violation of the moral law, or the fundamental principles of Masonry, or attempts against any part of the framework of its government. Neither shall be published to any but Masons, except by permission of the Grand Lodge.

§ 48. A Lodge may pronounce sentence of indefinite suspension, or of expulsion, which shall be final, unless appealed from within six months of the knowledge of the sentence, and reversed or modified on such appeal by the Grand Lodge. But the Grand Lodge may, on application after one year from the sentence, restore any one suspended or expelled by a Lodge or the Grand Lodge, in its discretion.

§ 49. Arrears for one year's dues shall subject a member to be stricken from the roll of his Lodge; and such fact shall be stated in the annual return, and the Lodge thereafter shall not be liable to the Grand Lodge for such dues; and the member shall thereupon become non-affiliated; but no act of censure, suspension, or expulsion shall be pronounced thereon for non-payment of dues only.

§ 50. Any poor brother, unable to pay the adjoining fee, may be received without such fee by any Lodge as an honorary member thereof by the unanimous vote of the brethren present, after one month's previous notice; and the Lodge may excuse such brother from the payment of any dues, and shall not be liable to the Grand Lodge for such fees or dues.

§ 51. It being the duty of every Mason to belong to some Lodge, and contribute to its funds; therefore, any Mason who does not contribute to the funds or belong to some Lodge, shall not be entitled to visit more than twice while he so continues, or to join in processions, or receive assistance or relief, or Masonic burial; and all unworthy or suspended or expelled Masons are strictly forbidden these privileges.

§ 52. Any Lodge, or Master, or Warden of any Lodge, knowingly permitting any violation of the foregoing sections, shall be subject to severe censure by the Grand Master or Grand Lodge; or, if thought expedient, shall be deprived of their warrant or office. And any non-affiliated Mason violating any of these provisions, shall be subject to censure, or absolute suspension, by the Grand Lodge or the nearest Subordinate Lodge.

§ 53. Every Lodge shall meet at least once in each year, and the neglect of a Lodge to hold any meeting for one year, or to make returns and pay dues for two years successively, shall forfeit its warrant.

TITLE X.

OF TRIAL AND ITS INCIDENTS.

§ 54. Where a controversy shall arise between Lodges; or between a Lodge and its Master; or between a Lodge and a member or members of another Lodge; or members of different Lodges, and charges be preferred thereupon, it shall be the duty of the Grand Lodge, when in session, by resolution, or of the acting Grand Master, during the recess, by his warrant, to appoint not more than seven, nor less than three, disinterested Commissioners, to hear and determine the same. Commissioners may in like manner be appointed, at the discretion of the Grand Master or Grand Lodge, in case of a difference between the Grand Lodge and one of its Subordinates.

§ 55. The Commissioners shall have attained the rank of Master or Warden, and shall be selected from at least three Lodges not interested in the matter, most convenient for the parties and their witnesses.

§ 56. After service of the charges, the Commissioners shall appoint a time and place for the trial convenient to the parties, and summon the parties and their witnesses; and any Master of a Lodge may issue a like summons for witnesses at the request of either party.

§ 57. When a trial is concluded, the Commissioners shall, as soon as possible, make their report of the facts found by them, and their judgment upon the matter, and give notice thereof to each of the parties, and a majority of the Commissioners must concur in the judgment; a duplicate copy of which report shall be filed with the Grand Secretary.

§ 58. The decision of the Commissioners shall be final, unless an appeal be taken therefrom to the Grand Lodge within six months; in which case it shall be the duty of the Commissioners, upon receiving notice of such appeal, to transmit their report to the Grand Secretary, unless they have already done so. The appellant shall also, within thirty days after notice of the decision, give notice of appeal to the opposing party.

§ 59. The appeal shall be heard in Grand Lodge, or before a Committee thereof, during its session, upon the appeal, and report of the Commissioner, and any document accompanying the same; and the decision of the Grand Lodge upon the appeal shall be conclusive upon the parties.

§ 60. When charges are preferred in a Lodge against a member, Commissioners shall be appointed in like manner, from among its members, by the Master in the chair,—and the trial be conducted, in all respects, like the preceding, so far as the same is applicable, subject to a like appeal.

§ 61. The expenses which may be incurred by Commissioners appointed under the provisions of this title, shall be borne by one or both of the parties, as shall be decided by the Commissioners; and the amount of such expenses, and their decision as to who shall be chargeable with the same, shall be set forth in their report, and payment may be enforced in the same manner as Lodge or Grand Lodge dues.

§ 62. Charges against the Master of a Lodge, for official misconduct while holding the office of Master, shall be presented to the Grand Lodge only during his term, or within one year thereafter.

TITLE XI.

OF CHARITY.

§ 63. Every brother in good standing, and the wives, widows and minor children of such, have a claim to charitable relief from the funds of the Grand Lodge, or any of its subordinates, upon presenting satisfactory evidence of their Masonic character, or relations, and that they are in necessitous circumstances.

§ 64. When such claim shall be made upon the funds of the Grand Lodge, when in session, it shall be referred to the Grand Stewards and Grand Treasurer, who shall report thereon to the Grand Lodge at the same session.

§ 65. When such claim shall be made in the recess, it shall be presented to the Grand Master, his Deputy, the Grand Wardens, or the Grand Secretary, who shall select three brethren, Past Masters, Masters or Wardens of Lodges, who shall be a committee to examine and report thereon; and the Grand Treasurer shall pay any draft upon him for such relief made by them, and countersigned by the Grand Officer appointing them.

§ 66. When a claim for charitable relief shall be presented to a Subordinate Lodge, or its Master, Wardens or Secretary, requiring immediate action, the Master and Wardens shall be a committee to examine the same and report thereon, and shall be authorized to draw upon the Funds of the Lodge, to an amount not exceeding five dollars, for present relief.

PART II.

DUTIES.

TITLE I.

OF THE DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

- § 67. It shall be the duty of the Grand Master :
1. To preside in the Grand Lodge at its Communications ; and,

  3. To receive, duly file, and safely keep all papers and documents of the Grand Lodge ;
  4. To sign and certify all instruments from the Grand Lodge ;
  5. To receive and keep a proper account of all moneys of the Grand Lodge, and pay over the same, without delay, to the Grand Treasurer ;
  6. To report, annually, to the Grand Lodge, the amount of moneys received by him, by items, and the specific sources from which it was received ; also the Lodges that have neglected to render proper returns of their elections, members and dues ; and such general information as to the state of the Lodges as may be proper for the information or action of the Grand Lodge ;
  7. To conduct the correspondence of the Grand Lodge, under the direction of the Grand Master, and in a Masonic manner ;
  8. To attend, with all necessary writings under his control, on all meetings of the Grand Lodge, on the requisition of the acting Grand Master ; and also to attend upon the Grand Master or Deputy Grand Master, on Masonic business, when required ;
  9. To keep his office open, for the transaction of Masonic business, at least three hours each day, except Sunday ; of which public notice shall be given ; and,

10. To transmit to the several Grand Lodges, in correspondence with this Grand Lodge, a certificate of the election of Grand Officers, immediately thereafter, containing their signatures respectively, and authenticated under his hand and the seal of the Grand Lodge, with a request for a similar document from each of said Grand Lodges.

§ 70. It shall be the duty of the Grand Treasurer:—

1. To take charge of all the funds, property, securities, and vouchers of the Grand Lodge;
2. To pay all orders duly drawn, under general regulations or special directions of the Grand Lodge;
3. To attend on the Grand Lodge or its presiding officer when required, with the books and all necessary documents relating to his office; and when required, the meeting of any Committee whose duty it may be to act in relation to the fiscal concerns of the Grand Lodge;
4. To report annually to the Grand Lodge the amount of his receipts and expenditures, by items, and from whom received, and to whom paid; and the amount of securities in his hands for funds invested by the Trustees;
5. To execute and file with the Grand Secretary an official bond, with sureties, to be approved by the Grand Master or Deputy Grand Master, conditioned that he will pay or deliver on demand to the Grand Lodge, or to his successor in office, all funds and property of the Grand Lodge that shall come to his hands as Grand Treasurer; and
6. To pay and deliver, at the expiration of his term, to his successor in office, or such person as shall be designated by the Grand Lodge, all moneys, securities, evidences of debt, books, writings, and property of the Grand Lodge under his control, with all proper assignments when necessary.

§ 71. It shall be the duty of the Grand Chaplains to attend the Grand Lodge, and to perform the religious services.

§ 72. It shall be the duty of the Grand Marshal:—

1. To proclaim the Grand Officers at their installation;
2. To introduce the representatives of foreign Grand Lodges, and visiting brethren of distinction; and
3. To conduct processions of the Grand Lodge.

§ 73. It shall be the duty of the Grand Standard Bearer to carry the Grand Banner of the Order in processions and public ceremonies.

§ 74. It shall be the duty of the Grand Sword Bearer:—

1. To carry the sword in procession; and
2. To perform such other duties as by ancient usage pertain to his office.

§ 75. It shall be the duty of the Grand Stewards:—

1. To have the immediate superintendence in the provisions to be made for festivals; and
2. To perform the duties prescribed in section 64 of this Constitution.

§ 76. It shall be the duty of the Grand Deacons to assist within the body of the Grand Lodge, in such duties as by usage appertain to their office.

§ 77. It shall be the duty of the Grand Pursuivant:

1. To communicate with the Grand Tiler, and announce all applicants for admission, by their names, Masonic address, and connection; and
2. To take charge of the jewels and regalia, under the direction of the Grand Officers; and
3. To attend all meetings of the Grand Lodge, and at other times upon the requisition of the Grand Master, or Presiding Officer.

§ 78. It shall be the duty of the Grand Tiler:—

1. To guard the door of the Grand Lodge on the outside, to report all persons claiming admission, and to see that none enter but such as may be duly authorized and properly clothed;
2. To carry the summonses, and perform all the customary services pertaining to his office; and
3. To attend all meetings of the Grand Lodge, and at other times upon the requisition of the Grand Master, or Presiding Officer.

§ 79. The Grand Tiler must be a Master Mason, but shall have no vote during his continuance in office.

§ 80. It shall be the duty of the several officers of the Grand Lodge, in addition to the duties herein specifically mentioned, to perform such other duties as pertaining to their offices, as shall from time to time be directed by the Grand Lodge.

§ 81. The Grand Secretary, Grand Treasurer, Grand Pursuivant, and Grand Tiler, shall each receive such stated compensation for their services as the Grand Lodge shall direct, which shall not be altered at any time so as to affect the incumbent in office.

§ 82. It shall be the duty of a Secretary of a Lodge:—

1. To record the proceedings of the Lodge under the direction of the presiding officer, which shall be read and corrected (if necessary,) and approved by the Lodge before it is closed, and such proceedings shall be submitted to the Grand Lodge whenever required.
2. To receive all moneys paid into the Lodge, and pay the same to the Treasurer;
3. To keep a register of the members of the Lodge, with a permanent number prefixed to each name, corresponding with the return for registry required by the Grand Lodge;
4. To register, alphabetically, in a suitable book, all expulsions, suspensions, rejections and restorations communicated by the Grand Lodge;
5. To transmit immediately after every election a certificate thereof to the Grand Secretary, in the form hereafter mentioned;
6. To make a full and correct return to the Grand Lodge, annually (previous to the last Wednesday in May), of all the members of the Lodge, in the form hereafter mentioned in section 118;
7. To report immediately after the expulsion or suspension of a member by the Lodge, the same to the Grand Secretary, with the cause of such expulsion or suspension;

8. To certify and affix the seal of the Lodge to all returns and certificates of election rendered to the Grand Lodge; and
9. To attest the official signature of the Master to all other Masonic documents, when necessary.

§ 83. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer of a Lodge:

1. To receive all moneys paid into the Lodge from the hands of the Secretary;
2. To keep a just and regular account thereof; and
3. To pay them out by direction of the Master, and consent of the brethren.

§ 84. The Tiler shall be subject in all things relating to his official duties to the direction of the Master or presiding officer.

TITLE II.

OF DUTIES OF LODGES AND MEMBERS.

§ 85. The duties of members are to conform to the Ancient Landmarks and Constitutions, General Regulations and Charges of the Fraternity, relative to them in their private capacity.

§ 86. Every Lodge shall have a seal, and shall keep the following books, and such other books as the Lodge itself shall direct, viz.:

A Book of By-Laws, with the signatures of the members.

A Record Book of the proceedings of the Lodge.

A Register of the names of members, date of initiation, occupation, etc.

An alphabetical list of expulsions, suspensions and rejections.

Such books as may be necessary to present clearly the receipts and accounts of the Secretary and Treasurer.

It shall also be the duty of the Lodge to keep, with the Lodge books, a book of Constitutions and Regulations of the Grand Lodge, to which shall be added, from time to time, all new regulations and alterations promulgated by the Grand Lodge. It shall also be the duty of the Lodge to preserve in its archives a copy of the proceedings of the Grand Lodge, as published from year to year.

§ 87. No Lodge shall confer the degrees for a less sum than the price fixed by the General Regulations; nor upon credit, nor receive a promissory note therefor in lieu of money, nor distribute its funds among its members, nor introduce intoxicating liquors within its Lodge-room, or any room adjoining, nor countenance or permit private or clandestine lecturing, nor meet for Masonic labors on the Sabbath, or first day of the week.

§ 88. When a duty is imposed, its neglect or violation, without excuse, shall be considered an offense against Masonic law.

PART III.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

TITLE I.

OF THE REGULATIONS OF THE GRAND LODGE OF NEW YORK.

§ 89. The style of this Grand Lodge shall be, "The Most Worshipful Grand Lodge of the Ancient and Honorable Fraternity of Free and Accepted Masons of the State of New York."

§ 90. This Grand Lodge shall be composed of the officers and members mentioned in sections 2, 29 and 30 of this Constitution, and all Past Grand officers of this Grand Lodge. A proxy must be a Present or Past Master; and the number of Lodges which he may represent shall not exceed three.

§ 91. Every officer and member of the Grand Lodge must be a member of a Subordinate Lodge within the jurisdiction.

§ 92. The representatives of ten Lodges convened on due notice, shall be indispensably necessary to open or transact business in the Grand Lodge, except on occasions of ceremony, when the Grand Master or his representative, with a sufficient number of brethren, being present, the Grand Lodge may be opened for the transaction of the business for which it is called.

§ 93. The Grand Lodge shall be held annually in the city of New York, on the first Tuesday of June, at which meeting the Grand Officers shall be elected and installed; and all matters, affecting the Craft generally in this jurisdiction, shall be considered and acted upon. The Grand Master, or the Deputy Grand Master, shall be chosen from the said city, or within ten miles of the City Hall in said city. When the Grand Master is chosen from the city, the Deputy Grand Master shall be chosen from the country; and when the Grand Master is chosen from the country, the Deputy Grand Master shall be chosen from the city. The Grand Treasurer and Grand Secretary shall be chosen from the city of New York, or within ten miles of the City Hall of the city of New York. The Senior and Junior Grand Wardens shall be chosen from some other part of the State than the said city. Special Communications may be held at any other time, on the requisition of the Grand Master, but no business of legislation shall be transacted, or change of the Constitutions, Regulations or Rules of Government of the Grand Lodge or of the Craft shall be made, except at the Annual June Communication. Quarterly Communications are abolished.

§ 94. Each Lodge shall be entitled to three votes, if represented by the Master and Wardens, or either of them, or by proxy, for any number of members up to fifty, and an additional vote for each additional fifty members.

§ 96. None but members of the Grand Lodge (past or present Officers of other Grand Lodges excepted) shall be present at the opening of the same, nor during an election.

§ 97. No brother shall be admitted into the Grand Lodge, but the members thereof, except by permission of the Grand Lodge.

§ 98. No brother, resident in the vicinity of a Lodge, and not a member of some Lodge, shall be permitted to visit the Grand Lodge, except by special invitation.

§ 99. The clothing, jewels and insignia of the Grand Officers, shall be such as have been adopted by usage and custom in this Grand Lodge; the jewels of the officers of Lodges to be of silver; the color of their collars and aprons to be of white, trimmed with blue, except as otherwise specially ordered or allowed by this Grand Lodge.

TITLE II.

OF REVENUE AND FUNDS.

§ 100. The revenue of this Grand Lodge shall be derived from the following sources :—

1. For every Charter or Warrant.....	$50 00
2. For every Dispensation to form a new Lodge.....	40 00
3. And if a charter or warrant shall be afterward granted, the additional sum of.....	10 00
4. For every Dispensation to confer the three degrees at one meeting, (except in case of sea-faring men about to sail on distant voyages).....	10 00
5. And every other Dispensation shall be without fees, except for a Dispensation to confer the degrees in less time than provided by the Constitution.....	5 00
6. For every Grand Lodge Diploma.....	2 00
7. For every Grand Lodge traveling certificate.....	50
8. For every person initiated into a Lodge.....	50
9. For every E. A. or F. C. from without the jurisdiction.....	1 00
10. Every Lodge shall pay for each of its members annually.....	50
11. For the adjoining fee of every Master Mason.....	50
12. For registry fee of every adjoining member or Entered Apprentice made.....	25

§ 101. Every Lodge shall be accountable for the dues of each of its members embraced in its return, except such as are exempted by section 50: and it shall be lawful for a Lodge to make By-Laws, exempting its Secretary, Chaplain and Tiler, from the payment of dues, and in such case the Lodge shall be exempt from liability to the Grand Lodge for their annual dues.

§ 102. The management of the permanent funds is vested in a Board of Trustees, denominated the Trustees of the Permanent Fund, consisting of the Grand Master, Deputy Grand Master, Grand Wardens and Grand Secretary, and all the invested funds of the Grand Lodge shall be placed under the management and stand in the names of the said Trustees, whose duty it shall be to take the best measures for the security and increase of said funds, and to invest, from time to time, as a majority may decide upon, all money which shall come into the hands of the Grand Treasurer, after paying salaries, representatives, and rent; and after leaving in his hands, for charitable and contingent purposes, such sum as the Grand Lodge may, from time to time, direct. The said Trustees shall deposit in the hands of the Grand Treasurer, the security and vouchers of the said invested funds, and shall not have the power to transfer, sell, dispose of, or appropriate any part of the invested fund without a vote of the Grand Lodge at the Annual Communication.

§ 103. The accounts of the Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer shall be examined, and the items compared with the vouchers quarterly, by a discreet committee of three members, appointed in the manner provided for in section 65 of this Constitution.

TITLE III.

OF SALARIES AND THE PAY OF REPRESENTATIVES.

§ 104. In the computation of time relative to salaries of Grand Officers, the year shall be considered as commencing and terminating on the first day of the Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge, and such salaries be paid quarterly accordingly.

§ 105. One representative from each Lodge shall be entitled to receive his traveling expenses, at the rates established by the proprietors of public conveyance, which he shall take in, coming directly from his Lodge to the place of meeting, and returning thereto, as charged by said proprietors at the time, and also three dollars for each day's attendance, and while traveling, not exceeding two days in going and returning. And though he represent more than one Lodge, he shall receive pay only for one Lodge; nor shall he receive more than the aggregate dues of the Lodges he shall represent.

§ 106. Grand Officers, residing out of the city of New York, shall be entitled to the like compensation, from the funds of the Grand Lodge.

§ 107. Absence of a Grand Officer, or Representative, before the close of the communication, or from any cause except sickness or calamity to himself, or his family, shall forfeit all claim to payment or compensation under the two next preceding sections.

TITLE IV.

OF WORK AND LECTURES.

§ 108. There shall be annually elected by ballot a Master Mason, of approved Masonic skill and learning, and a member in good standing of some Subordinate Lodge in this jurisdiction, who shall be styled "Grand Lecturer," and whose duty it shall be to attend the Annual Communication of the Grand Lodge, and shall be a member thereof, and shall, during the session, exhibit to the members the standard of work, which is approved and determined by the Grand Lodge, for the practice of Lodges under its jurisdiction. It shall also be his duty to impart said lectures to the Lodges or brethren in this State, whenever he shall be invited so to do, and may receive such compensation therefor as may be fixed by the Grand Lodge before the election, and shall not be changed during his continuance in office. He shall make an annual report of the state of proficiency of the Lodges he may visit.

§ 109. The Grand Lecturer, as soon as his work and lectures shall be approved by the Grand Lodge, shall appoint one competent assistant in each of the judicial districts of the State, of like qualifications and character, who shall adopt and practice his standard of work, of lectures, and no others, and who shall have the like powers with himself within their respective districts, and not out of it, unless specially directed by him in case of a vacancy in another district, and be subject to like duties, and receive such compensation as shall be determined by the Grand Lodge.

§ 110. Every Lodge shall adopt and practice the standard of work and lectures imparted by the Grand Lecturer or assistant Grand Lecturers, and no other; and any Lodge violating this provision without express authority from this Grand Lodge, shall be subject to forfeiture of their warrant.

§ 111. Any Freemason, not duly authorized who shall impart such work and lectures, shall be subject to expulsion; but this shall not apply to the Master or Wardens of a Lodge, or any Present or Past Master or competent brother invited by them to officiate in any Lodge.

TITLE V.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

§ 112. Officers of Lodges in this jurisdiction shall be elected at the stated meeting of such Lodge next preceding the festival of St. John the Evangelist.

§ 113. Past Masters qualified to represent a Lodge in the Grand Lodge, are such as shall have been duly elected and installed, and shall have served one year in that office, and who are contributing members of some Lodge subordinate to this jurisdiction.

§ 114. No Entered Apprentice or Fellow Craft, initiated or passed in any Lodge within the United States, shall be passed or raised in any Lodge under the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge, other than that in which he was initiated, unless he shall produce a recommendation from the Lodge in which he was initiated or passed, provided said Lodge continue in existence.

§ 115. All Freemasons who are acknowledged as such by any of the Lodges in good standing, under the jurisdiction of Grand Lodges in correspondence with this Grand Lodge, may be admitted as visiting brethren under the same restrictions as those of our own country.

§ 116. No Lodge shall make a Mason (except one made for the purpose of being a Tiler) for a less sum than fifteen dollars.

§ 117. There shall be no procession of Masons in the city of New York, without a Dispensation from the Grand Lodge, the Grand Master, or his Deputy; nor in any other part of the State, without such permission, or the permission of a regularly constituted Lodge.

§ 118. The forms for registry and returns of the election of officers and appointment of proxies, shall be prepared in compliance with these General Regulations by the Grand Secretary, and duplicate copies thereof furnished by him to each Lodge annually.

§ 119. No Dispensation shall be granted to establish a Lodge out of an incorporated city in this jurisdiction, in the same town or village in which a Lodge is already established; nor shall a warrant be issued to establish such Lodge without the vote of two-thirds of the members present in Grand Lodge; nor in such city unless it contain at least ten thousand inhabitants.

PART IV.

OF LOCAL REGULATIONS.

§ 120. It is the duty of the Grand Master to visit, annually, in person, or by deputy, every Lodge in the cities of New York and Brooklyn.

§ 121. It is the duty of every Lodge, held in the cities of New York, and Brooklyn, to make its returns to the Grand Lodge, half yearly, and of the Secretary of every such Lodge to prepare such return.

§ 122. No Dispensation authorizing a funeral procession in the city of New York, except for a sojourner, shall be issued, unless requested by the Master and Wardens of the Lodge to whom the deceased member belonged.

§ 123. Any Lodge in the city of New York neglecting to make returns and pay its dues, on or before the first day of the Annual June Communication, shall be thereby disqualified from voting in the Grand Lodge.

§ 124. The Lodges and Masons in the City of Brooklyn, within ten miles of New York City Hall, shall be subject to the same regulations, and entitled to the same privileges, as those in the City of New York.

PART V.

OF FUTURE AMENDMENTS AND NEW REGULATION.

§ 125. No amendment to this Constitution shall be made, or have any effect, until it shall have been proposed in Grand Lodge, at its Annual Communication in June, and been adopted by the Grand Lodge at the same Communication, and then again adopted in like manner by the Grand Lodge at the next succeeding annual June Communication. But such amendment may also be made and have effect, if, in addition to the adoption thereof, at one such Annual Communication, it shall, during the next year succeeding, and before the next Annual June Communication thereafter, be adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Lodges within this jurisdiction. If any such amendment be adopted, it shall be appended to the published proceedings at the end, under the caption, "Proposed Amendments to the Constitution," and sent with the printed proceedings to all the Lodges in the jurisdiction.

§ 126. No General Regulation shall be adopted inconsistent with this Constitution, and all former written Constitutions are hereby repealed, and all General Regulations heretofore made and adopted, inconsistent with this Constitution, are hereby also repealed.

CONSTITUTION
OF THE
GENERAL GRAND CHAPTER
OF
ROYAL ARCH MASONS
FOR THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

As Amended at the Triennial Meeting, begun and held in the City of Lexington, in the State of Kentucky, on Tuesday, September 13th, 1853, and of the Order, 2383.

---

ARTICLE I.

OF THE GENERAL GRAND CHAPTER.

Section 1. There shall be a General Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, for the United States of America, which shall be holden triennially, on the second Tuesday in September, at such place as shall from time to time be designated for that purpose, and at which time the General Grand Officers shall be elected by ballot, and installed, except the General Grand Chaplain, who shall be appointed by the General Grand High Priest at the commencement of each convocation of the General Grand Chapter.

The General Grand Chapter, at any regular meeting, may change the time for the next succeeding meeting ; and if, in the opinion of the General Grand High Priest, or, in case of his death or absence, of the senior General Grand Officer, there shall be danger to life or health, from sickness or other local cause, by any meeting being held at the time appointed, he may change the time of the particular meeting to some subsequent time. And in the event of such change being made, he shall immediately notify the General Grand Secretary thereof, who shall forthwith notify the other officers and members in such manner as he may deem best calculated to effect the desired object.

Sec. 2. The General Grand Chapter shall have and maintain jurisdiction over all State Grand Chapters, and over Chapters in those States, Districts, Republics, or Territories, which recognize this jurisdiction, and where there is no Grand Chapter regularly established, agreeably to the provisions of this Constitution : and shall have authority to suspend the proceedings of such State Grand Chapters, and such Chapters in States where there is no Grand Chapter, as may knowingly violate any of the provisions of this Constitution ; to settle all difficulties which may arise ; and to give such advice and instruction as may seem most conducive to their peace, and to the advancement of the great cause of benevolence and virtue.

Sec. 3. The officers of the General Grand Chapter shall consist of a General Grand High Priest, Deputy General Grand High Priest, General Grand King, General Grand Scribe, General Grand Treasurer, General Grand Secretary, General Grand Chaplain, General Grand Captain of the Host, and General Grand Royal Arch Captain. These, together with the first four officers of every State Grand Chapter, under this jurisdiction, or the proxies of the first four General Grand Officers, and of the first four officers of each State Grand Chapter aforesaid, shall compose the General Grand Chapter : Provided. That any Chapter under this jurisdiction, in any State, District, or Territory, where there is no Grand Chapter duly established, shall have a right to appear by its first three officers, or any one or two of them ; which officers shall collectively have one vote.

Sec. 4. On all questions to be decided by the General Grand Chapter, each State Grand Chapter shall be entitled to four votes by its representative or representatives.

The General Grand Officers, when present, shall each have one vote. And no General Grand Officer shall be allowed to take a seat in the General Grand Chapter, as the representative of any State Grand Chapter—nor shall any member of the General Grand Chapter be permitted to vote as proxy while the person giving the proxy is present—nor shall any person be admitted into the General Grand Chapter, as the representative of more than one State Grand Chapter, at one and the same time.

Sec. 5. The General Grand High Priest, and Deputy General Grand High Priest, shall have authority to call a special meeting of the General Grand Chapter, whenever they may consider it expedient or necessary ; and it shall be their duty so to do, when properly requested by a majority of the State Grand Chapters, of which four months' notice shall be given of the time and place of meeting.

Sec. 6. The General Grand High Priest, Deputy General Grand High Priest, General Grand King, and General Grand Scribe, shall severally have power and authority to grant Dispensations, for a limited length of time, for new Royal Arch Chapters, and Lodges of the appendant Orders, in any State, Country, Republic, or Territory, in which there is not a Grand Chapter regularly established, when, in their opinion, the good of the Craft may require the same ; which term of time shall in no case extend beyond the time of the next Triennial Meeting of the General Grand Chapter. But no new Chapter shall be established in any State, Country, Republic, or Territory, where there is a Chapter, within a reasonable distance, under the jurisdiction of this General Grand Chapter, without the approbation of the Chapter nearest to the place where said new Chapter is proposed to be located ; and in all cases of such dispensation, the officer who may grant the same, shall immediately notify the General Grand Secretary thereof, and make report of the same at the next Triennial

Meeting of this General Grand Chapter, when the General Grand Chapter may grant the said Chapter a Charter.

Sec. 7. The fees for instituting a new Royal Arch Chapter, with Subordinate Degrees, shall be ninety dollars, and no more ; and no credit shall be given for Dispensations or Charters, or for conferring the degrees, in any Chapter or Lodge under this jurisdiction. And every Chapter holden by Dispensation or Charter under this jurisdiction, shall pay into the treasury of the General Grand Chapter the sum of two dollars for each Companion therein exalted, until such time as a Grand Chapter shall be regularly established in the State, Country, Republic, or Territory, in which such subordinate Chapter is located. The Secretary shall be paid by the petitioners ten dollars for his services in furnishing the Charter. The fees in the several States for conferring the several degrees of Mark Master, Past Master, Most Excellent Master, and Royal Arch Mason, shall not be less than twenty dollars.

Sec. 8. It shall be the duty of the General Grand High Priest, Deputy General Grand High Priest, General Grand King, and General Grand Scribe, to improve and perfect themselves in the sublime Arts, and Work of Mark Masters, Past Masters, Most Excellent Masters, and Royal Arch Masons ; to make themselves masters of the several Masonic Lectures, and ancient Charges ; to consult with each other, and with the Grand and Deputy Grand High Priests, Kings, and Scribes of the several State Grand Chapters aforesaid, for the purpose of adopting measures suitable and proper for diffusing a knowledge of the said Lectures and Charges. And the better to accomplish this laudable object, the aforesaid officers are hereby severally authorized and empowered to visit and preside in any Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, and Lodge of Most Excellent Master, Mark and Past Master Masons, throughout the said States, and to give such instructions and directions as the good of the Fraternity may require ; always adhering to the ancient landmarks of the Order.

Sec. 9. The only degrees recognized by this General Grand Chapter, to be conferred in Chapters under its jurisdiction, are, Mark Master, Past Master, Most Excellent Master, and Royal Arch Mason. And no Royal Arch Mason, who shall have regularly received said degrees, shall be excluded from the rights of such, by reason of his not being in possession of any other, so called, degrees.

Sec. 10. In all cases of the absence of an officer from any body of Masons, instituted or holden by virtue of this Constitution, the officer next in rank shall occupy his place ; unless through courtesy, or for other reasons, he shall decline in favor of a Past High Priest.

Sec. 11. In every Chapter and Lodge under this jurisdiction, all questions (except the admission of members or candidates, which shall require a unanimous ballot) shall be considered and determined in such way and manner, as such Chapters and Lodges may, all circumstances considered, find most conducive to their harmony and permanent prosperity : Provided, They do not in any case interfere with, or infringe on, the regulations of the General Grand Chapter.

Sec. 12. The General Grand Secretary of the General Grand Chapter shall have and keep a seal, which shall be affixed to all his communications.

Sec. 13. Should any casualty, at any time hereafter, prevent the triennial election of officers, the several officers shall retain their respective offices until successors are duly elected and qualified.

ARTICLE II.

OF THE STATE GRAND CHAPTERS.

Sec. 1. The State Grand Chapters shall severally consist of a Grand High Priest, Deputy Grand High Priest, Grand King, Grand Scribe, Grand Secretary, Grand Treasurer, Grand Chaplain, Grand Captain of the Host ; and likewise, of the High Priests, Kings and Scribes, for the time being, of the several Chapters over which they shall respectively preside, and of the Past Grand and Deputy Grand High Priests, Kings and Scribes of the said Grand Chapters ; and the said Grand Chapters shall have full power and authority to elect such other officers, and to establish such rules and regulations, as they shall from time to time consider necessary and proper: Provided, Such regulations do not in any way interfere with the provisions of this Constitution.

Sec. 2. The State Grand Chapters shall severally be holden once in every year, and oftener if they may consider it expedient or necessary, as such time and place as they shall respectively direct; and, at their annual meetings, the constitutional officers shall be elected, or appointed in such manner as shall be provided for by their rules and regulations, and installed into their respective offices; and the Grand, or Deputy Grand High Priest, respectively, for the time being, may call special meetings, to be holden at such times and places as they may think proper.

Sec. 3. The several State Grand Chapters shall have the sole government and superintendence of the several Royal Arch Chapters and Lodges of Most Excellent, Past, and Mark Master Masons, within their respective jurisdictions, to assign their limits, and to settle the controversies that may happen between them; and shall have power, under their respective seals and the signs manual of their respective Grand, or Deputy Grand High Priests, Kings and Scribes, attested by their respective Grand Secretaries, to constitute new Chapters of Royal Arch Masons within their respective jurisdictions: but their jurisdictions shall in no case be construed to extend beyond the limits of the State, except by consent of the General Grand Chapter.

Sec. 4. The Grand, and Deputy Grand High Priests, severally, shall have the power and authority, whenever they shall deem it expedient, during the recess of the Grand Chapter of which they are officers, to grant Letters of Dispensation under their respective hands and private seals, to a competent number of petitioners, possessing the qualifications required by the 7th section of the second Article of this Constitution, empowering them to open a Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, for a certain specified term of time: Provided, That the said term of time shall not extend beyond the next meeting of the Grand Chapter of the State in which such Dispensation shall be granted: And provided further, That the same fees as are required by this Constitution for Charters, shall be first deposited in the hands of the Grand Secretary. And in all cases of such Dispensation, the officers who may grant the same shall make report thereof at the next stated meeting of the Grand Chapter of his jurisdiction, when the said Grand Chapter may either continue or recall the said Dispensation, or may grant the petitioners a Charter of Constitution. And in case such Charter shall be granted, the fees first deposited shall be credited in payment of the same; but if a Charter should not be granted, nor the Dispensation continued, the said fees shall be refunded to the petitioners, excepting only such part thereof as shall have been actually expended by means of their application.

Sec. 5. No Dispensation or Charter shall be granted for instituting Lodges of Most Excellent, Past, or Mark Masters, independent of a Chapter of Royal Arch Masons.

Sec. 6. The Grand Chapters shall have power, severally, to require from the several Chapters under their respective jurisdictions, such reasonable proportion of sums received by them for the exaltation or advancement of candidates, and such certain annual sums from their respective members, as by their ordinances or regulations shall be appointed; all which said sums or dues shall be made good and paid annually by the said Chapters, respectively, over to the Grand Secretary of the Grant Chapter under which they hold their authority, on or before the first day of the respective annual meetings of the several Grand Chapters.

Sec. 7. No Dispensation or Charter for the institution of a new Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, shall be granted, except upon the petition of nine regular Royal Arch Masons; which petition shall be accompanied with a certificate from the Chapter nearest to the place where the new Chapter is intended to be opened, vouching for the moral character and Masonic abilities of the petitioners, and recommending that a Dispensation or Charter be granted them.

Sec. 8. The Grand Secretaries of the State Grand Chapters, shall, severally, make an annual communication to each other, and also to the Secretary of the General Grand Chapter, containing a list of Grand Officers, and all such other matters as may be deemed necessary for the mutual benefit and information of the said Grand Chapters. And the said Grand Secretaries shall also regularly transmit to the Secretary of the General Grand Chapter, a copy of all their By-laws and regulations; and also a copy of their proceedings, annually, to each of the officers of the General Grand Chapter; and the State Grand Chapters shall see that their Secretaries faithfully and punctually perform this duty.

Sec. 9. Whenever there shall have been three Chapters regularly instituted and consecrated in any State, Country, Republic, or Territory, by virtue of authority derived from this Constitution, a Grand Chapter shall be established, so soon as convenience and propriety may dictate: Provided, That the approbation of one of the first four officers of the General Grand Chapter be first obtained. And said Grand Chapters, by their regular officers, shall assemble in some suitable place, elect their officers, and make such rules and regulations for their government as may be necessary—not inconsistent with the regulations of the General Grand Chapter.

Sec. 10. No person shall be permitted to take a seat in any State Grand Chapter, as the representative of more than one Chapter; nor unless he is a member of a subordinate Chapter under that jurisdiction.

ARTICLE III.

OF THE SUBORDINATE CHAPTERS.

Sec. 1. Every Chapter of Royal Arch Masons throughout this jurisdiction shall have a Dispensation, as is provided in section 6th, of the first Article, or section 4th, of the second Article, of this Constitution, or a Charter from the General Grand Chapter, or from some Grand Chapter under the jurisdiction of the General Grand Chapter; and no Chapter shall be deemed legal without such Dispensation or Charter: and Masonic communication, both public and private, is hereby interdicted and forbidden, between any Chapter, or any member of it, and any Chapter or assembly that may be so illegally formed, opened or holden, without such Charter, or any or either of their members, or any person exalted or advanced in such illegal Chapter. But nothing in this section shall be construed to affect any Chapter which was established before the adoption of the Grand Royal Arch Constitution, at Hartford, on the 27th day of January, A. D. 1798.

Sec. 2. Whenever a Charter is issued for instituting a Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, with a power in said Charter to open and hold Lodges of Most Excellent, Past, and Mark Master Masons, the High Priest, King and Scribe, for the time being, of such Chapter, shall be the Master and Wardens in said Lodges, according to seniority.

Sec. 3. It is incumbent on the High Priest of every Chapter, as appertaining to his office, duty and dignity, to see that the By-laws of his Chapter, as well as the Constitution of the General Grand Chapter, and the regulations of the Grand Chapter, be duly observed; that all his subordinate officers perform the duties of their respective stations faithfully, and are examples of diligence and industry to their companions; that true and exact records be kept of all the proceedings of the Chapter, by the Secretary; that the Treasurer keep and render exact and just accounts of all the moneys belonging to the Chapter; that regular returns be made by the Secretary annually to the Grand Chapter, of the admission of all candidates or members; and that the annual dues to the Grand Chapter be regularly and punctually paid. The Charter of his Chapter is committed to his special care and charge. He has the right and authority of calling his Chapter at pleasure, upon any emergency or occurrence which in his judgment may require their meeting, and he is to fill the chair when present. It is likewise his duty, together with his King and Scribe, to attend the regular and special meetings of the Grand Chapter, either in person or by proxy.

Sec. 4. No person having been a member of a Chapter shall be admitted a member of any other Chapter under this jurisdiction, until he shall have produced a certificate from the Chapter to which he last belonged, that he was in regular standing, and as such, at his own request, is dismissed and recommended.

Sec. 5. That any worthy Companion, from without the jurisdiction of the United States, who may present himself as a Royal Arch Mason, and produce satisfactory evidence of his having received that degree, that each and every Chapter under the jurisdiction of this General Grand Chapter have liberty, and they are hereby authorized, to confer the degrees of Mark Master, Past Master, and Most Excellent Master, on such Companions, (who have not heretofore received them,) to the end that they may be healed, and thereby become regular Royal Arch Masons, free of charge.

Sec. 6. That the Subordinate Chapter so conferring said degrees, shall be exempt from paying any dues therefor.

Sec. 7. It shall not be deemed regular for any Chapter to confer the degrees of the Chapter upon any person whose fixed place of abode is within any other State, in which there is a Chapter regularly established, except by the consent of the Chapter nearest the place of residence of said applicant.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Sec. 1. Whenever it shall be inconvenient for the General Grand Officers, or the Grand or Deputy Grand High Priests, respectively, to attend in person, to constitute a new Chapter, and install the officers, they shall, severally, have power and authority to appoint some worthy High Priest, or Past High Priest, to perform the necessary ceremonies.

Sec. 2. The officers of every Chapter under this jurisdiction, before they enter upon the exercise of their respective offices, and also the members of all such Chapters, and every candidate upon his admission into the same, shall take the following obligation, viz: "I, A. B., do promise and swear, that I will support and maintain the Constitution of the G. G. Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, for the United States of America."

Sec. 3. This Constitution shall not be altered or amended, unless such alteration or amendment be proposed in writing at one regular meeting of the General Grand Chapter, published among the minutes of the proceedings, and at the next regular meeting receive the approval of two thirds of the members then present.

I hereby certify, that the foregoing is a true copy of the Constitution of the General Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons for the United States of America.

In testimony whereof, I have caused the seal of the General Grand Chapter to be hereunto affixed.

Dated at the City of Washington, this 27th day of September, 1853, and the year of the Order, 2383.

B. B. FRENCH, G. G. Secretary.

Masonic Periodicals

IN THE

UNITED STATES.

WEEKLY.

The Masonic Mirror and Keystone, weekly. Edited by Leon Hyneman, Esq., Philadelphia Pa., $2 a year in advance. Now in its fourth volume. Brother Hyneman is a talented writer, and devotes all his energies to make the Mirror and Keystone deserving of the large and well merited circulation he has attained. Long may the Mirror continue to reflect its light on the numerous band of brothers who read it, as well as credit on Brother Hyneman, and his accomplished lady, whose graceful writings adorn its pages. Brother Hyneman's Mirror is the only Weekly Masonic Paper published in the United States.

SEMI-MONTHLY.

The American Freemason, semi-monthly. Edited by Robert Morris, Esq., and published by Brother J. F. Brennan, Louisville, Kentucky. at one dollar a year in advance. Now in its third volume. The American Freemason is, verily, the practical Trestle-board for the brethren; and no one can read a copy without being struck with its intrinsic value as the vade mecum of the ambitious mason. Brother Morris has a happy method of simplifying the study of Freemasonry—making “dark things light and crooked things straight” — and unraveling the meshes of Masonic Jurisprudence, which, though in reality simple in itself, is the cause of so much confusion among the craft. We cannot close this notice without referring to the action of the Grand Masonic Bodies in Kentucky for the past two years, in relation to the American Freemason. The Grand Lodge, Grand Chapter, Grand Council, and Grand Encampment of Kentucky, each passed unanimously a resolution subscribing for one volume for each subordinate body under its jurisdiction in 1853—and repeated the same resolution and subscription in 1854; the Grand Master, Todd, declaring in his annual address, that, since the publication of the American Freemason and its introduction among the Brotherhood of that State, not one single case of dispute in relation to questions of Masonic law was to come before them during that (1854) session, and recommending in the most forcible language that each member of the order in his State subscribe for it and read it—especially Masters and Wardens of Lodges. See Brother J. F. Brennan's advertisement, on another page, and read especially Grand Master Evans' Official recommendation of the American Freemason.

MONTHLY.

First in the order of seniority stands the Freemason's Magazine, monthly. Edited by Charles W. Moore, Esq., of Boston, Mass. at $2 a year in advance. Brother Moore is considered one of the first masonic authorities in the United States, and is quoted largely by Dr. Mackey, Dr. Oliver, and the other great lights of masonic literature. We have in our library a complete set of the Magazine except the first vol. (1841), and are much indebted to it for various important facts and opinions on Masonic subjects. No Masonic library ought to be without the Magazine.

The Masonic Review, monthly. Edited by Cornelius Moore, Esq., of Cincinnati, Ohio. $2 a year. Brother Moore's Review is anxiously looked for at the calends of each month. Brother Moore is a sound and vigorous writer, and produces in the Review two volumes a year of a book that no Mason in the Union ought to be without. For the purity of its language, the attractive easiness and grace of its style, and the soundness of its arguments and views on masonry, the Review is worthy of the highest consideration of the craft ; and with the fairest portion of our community, the wives and sisters of our brethren, the Review, as well as its talented Editor, is a great favorite, and long may it continue so to be.

No mortal can more (Moore) the ladies adore
Than a Free and an Accepted Mason.

The office of the Review is 17 Walnut St., Cincinnati.

The Signet and Journal, monthly Edited by Brother the Honorable S. Lawrence, at Marietta, Cobb Co., Georgia. $2. a year in advance. For many years past the Masonic Signet, edited by the gifted pen of Brother J.W. S. Mitchell had been looked up to as one of the great exponents of Masonic law, whose opinions and views have been quoted by the various Committees of the several Grand Lodges until they have become "familiar in our mouths as household words." At the same time, the learned and polished Editor of the Masonic Journal, Brother Samuel Lawrence, was delighting and edifying his readers with the cream of Masonic literature which he provided for them—with matter calculated to elevate their character and make them better citizens and brighter masons. In 1853 the Signet of Brother Mitchell, and the Journal of Brother Lawrence were merged in one and the same publication, under the title of the "Signet and Journal," under the editorial management of both editors. What an array of talent! The craft appreciated it, and the Signet and Journal prospered until the fall of 1854—when a destructive fire breaking out in Marietta, the office of the Signet and Journal, with all the library, documents, &c., of its editors, was consumed! Brother Lawrence again started, and with his acknowledged fortitude and perseverance, succeeded in building his second Temple on the ruins of the first. Brother L. is poor and without much money, but with a host of friends who can and will sustain him. In the midst of his difficulty we received a letter from him with this forcible motto at the head of it:

"Ne cedam malis, sed contra audentior ibo."

Brother Lawrence was not the first to appropriate this world-renowned and inspiring line of Virgil. It was the force of it that made Napoleon what he was—that made Washington the deliverer of his country. “Bear up under difficulty and try again,” is advice worthy of every Mason: and as this imperfect notice meets the eye of our brethren, we hope they will try and “try till they succeed” in obtaining a list of one or two subscribers to aid and assist our worthy and talented brother in his good work of rebuilding the Signet and Journal.

The January and February numbers of the Journal are to hand, and are as usual a feast that every brother should indulge in. Brother Lawrence has commenced the publication of a beautiful poem entitled “The Kaleidoscope,” which is to run through the present volume. Judging from what has already appeared of it, we consider it worth five times the amount of subscription. Address “Hon. S. Lawrence, Marietta, Georgia.”

The Acacia, monthly. Edited by William P. Mellen, Esq., and published by Giles M. Hillyer, Natchez, Miss. at $3 per annum in advance. The name of Brother Mellen as “Editor” is a sufficient guaranty that the Acacia will take a prominent place among the first Masonic Journals in the land. He is an accomplished gentleman, and a Masonic scholar of deep research, whose opinions on Masonry are worthy of the highest respect. The Acacia will prove a valuable acquisition to our masonic literature.

WOOD ENGRAVING

Has of late been brought to such a state of perfection in the boldness and brilliancy of its effects, delicacy of finish, &c., that it successfully comp-tes with every other kind of printed illustration; and its adaptation to business purposes, economy, and other advantages, has rendered it the most popular of all embellishments.

Advantages: The most beautiful designs can be executed at a less cost than other engravings—it is the only kind of Engraving which can be worked with types—an unlimited number of electro-types or stereotypes can be taken (without injury to the engraving), enabling the printer to print many impressions at one time—the cost of printing is less than of other kinds of engraving (or lithograph)—a good wood-cut will outwear any two or three executed in any other manner, as there is no wearing of the cut as in other engravings. 300,000 impressions have been taken from Wood-cuts.

It is adapted to the execution of the finest Book Illustrations, Portraits, Landscape and Architectural Views, Stores, Bill Heads, Business Cards, Bank Checks, Lodge Seals, Certificates, Newspaper Heads, Magazine Covers, Machinery, Labels, Stamps, Ornamental Designs, Engravings for printing in colors, &c.

PARTICULAR ATTENTION TO ENGRAVING.

I cannot see how any outlay, so small, can secure such an amount of the purest and most valuable Masonic information, as by patronizing the American Freemason. The Editor, Brother MORRIS, is a most indefatigable man in securing knowledge from every proper source; while his own writings are acknowledged to be unexcelled by any Masonic Author.

In an especial manner, I would notice with favor Bro. Morris' articles on MASONIC JURISPRUDENCE, which form so large a portion of every issue. In this department of Masonry, Bro. Morris has achieved an enviable triumph, as his views and opinions are generally received as wholesome Masonic Law in every portion of the United States.

I unhesitatingly recommend this valuable paper to the favorable consideration of every Mason.

CODE OF MASONIC LAW;

A Practical Exhibition of the Landmarks and General Usage of Ancient Craft Masonry.

BY

ROB. MORRIS, K. T.
MASONIC AUTHOR AND LECTURER.

---

"To the law and to the testimony : if they speak not according to this word it is because there is no light in them."—ISAIAH, viii. 20.

This work, the first ever published on Masonic Jurisprudence, has been in a course of active preparation for the past five years. During this time the author has spared no toil or expense, to acquire the most reliable data, from the proceedings of Grand Lodges, and the individual opinions of enlightened brethren throughout the United States, upon which to found his own decisions upon intricate points. He feels some confidence now that his work will serve to spare others the enormous labor he has been at, while searching for this Masonic light.

The necessity for such a work, in the present condition of Masonry, is so apparent, that he offers no arguments to prove it. It was that staring and admitted necessity indeed, which first urged him to the task. The pages of his Diary and his Index Rerum are a monument to the truth of this necessity, and to the hard years of mental labor and travel, requisite to overcome it. Every Mason has felt it, and the work of Masonry in many a fair field is languishing under it.

The author's qualifications for such a work have already been indorsed by the fraternity, in their large patronage of the Ameri can Freemason, of which he is Editor, and the various Masonic works he has written—all of which owe their popularity, he is assured, to the views and explications of Masonic Law which occupy so large a portion of them. He cannot feel any hesitation therefore in accepting the invitation so often made him, to publish his views and explications in a volume, adding to those already given, enough to complete a general view of the subject.

His single aim in the preparation of the CODE OF MASONIC LAW, has been to make the matter plain and intelligible. All graces of style and diction have been disregarded, in his attention to this one fundamental rule. So far as he has succeeded in this, his work will accomplish its aim.

Officers of Lodges will find in this volume an explication of every important question in Masonic Law, which can arise to embarrass them in the performance of their duties.

Members of the Fraternity, studying to prepare themselves for usefulness in the Order, will find it a guide to the great principles which underlie it, as the gigantic blocks underlay the Ancient Temple.

The intelligent citizen, seeking, amidst the various affiliations of the day, for that one which is most accordant with a moral, intellectual and social instinct, will see in this work, that in Masonry only can a healthy craving for affiliation be gratified—for Masonry is the Fountain of all affiliation.

Finally, in those numerous vexed questions which spring up in the hurry of business, to which heretofore there has been no standard of reference, and which too often ultimate in confusion, discord and heart-burnings,—the CODE OF MASONIC LAW will prove a basis of settlement, satisfactory to all parties, a sound exponent of Masonic light, and a Dictionary of reference.

An Appendix will be added, to embrace a great variety of subjects, such as Dedication of Halls; Directions for Masonic Burials; Description of a Model Lodge; Duties of Secretaries; Regalia and Fittings of Lodges and Individuals; and many others.

The CODE OF MASONIC LAW will be issued JULY 1, 1855, in an octavo volume of about 250 pages, with neat emblematical covers.

Sent post paid to any address in the United States, for ONE DOLLAR; six copies for FIVE DOLLARS.

Address,

CIRCULAR TO THE CRAFT.

TO THE WORSHIPFUL MASTER, WARDENS & BRETHREN OF THIS LODGE.

GREETING:

WORSHIPFUL SIR AND BROTHERS:

The object of the present communication is to solicit from your Lodge a small donation, to enable me to carry out the purpose of founding a MASONIC FEMALE COLLEGE, to be styled

EXCELSIOR COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE.

The circumstances which seemingly justify me in making this request, are, in brief, as follows:

Some eighteen months ago, I was induced to undertake the enterprise on my own individual responsibility, and, in so doing, to incur a debt of over $7,000. In the mean time, I have succeeded in reducing that debt to less than $5,000, leaving me in possession of a property that cost over $10,000. The amount thus invested includes my entire all; if I lose it, as I am in great danger of doing, I shall be thrown, with my family, consisting of a wife and three children, penniless upon the cold charities of the world. The present "hard times," or pressure in the money market, (which are doubtless felt here more severely than in any other part of the Union, owing to the almost total failure of the chief staple of this region,) renders it an utter impossibility for me to meet my liabilities, and save my property from being sacrificed, and my hard earnings from being swept from me, unless I can obtain assistance from some source. Having lived long, and had much experience in the world, I am forced to the conclusion, that upon the golden altar of Masonry the sacred fires of charity and benevolence burn more brightly than elsewhere on earth, and that within the living sanctuary of Masons' hearts are cherished, with undying vigilance, the heaven-born virtues of Brotherly Love, Relief, and Truth. I am, therefore, constrained, my dear Brothers, to appeal to you for aid, in this my time of greatest trial and distress; and I trust my appeal will not be in vain. Masons' hearts, I know, are sympathetic hearts; they can not only sympathize with a brother in distress, and with his widow and orphans, when he has been called by the supreme G. M. to his station in the M. W. G. Lodge above, but they can more than merely sympathize, by rendering substantial aid and comfort in affliction's darkest hour.

A small donation from each Lodge addressed, will enable me to accomplish my purpose, to save my property from being sacrificed, myself and family from poverty and ruin, and Masonry from the contumely of its enemies. It will also enable me to do as I have been doing for several years past, whenever an opportunity presented itself; ever since, indeed, I had it in my power to extend the inestimable blessings of education to the orphan daughters of deceased brothers, and even to others who are poor and needy. I have had more or less of this class in my family ever since I had charge of a boarding school. My outgoings in this way have amounted to hundreds of dollars per annum. My only regrets are that I have not had it in my power to extend these advantages to a greater number. Even during the present year I have on hand several of that class; I cannot say to them when the application is made, "Go elsewhere;" on the contrary, I receive them, although my friends and creditors reproach me for so doing, and give them a place in my family and school, and thus expect to do, as long as their necessities require and my abilities permit.

And now, in conclusion, my dear brothers, all I ask of you is an exemplification, to a limited extent, of the same principle. I doubt not this principle of charity—the brightest star in the whole galaxy of Masonic virtues—burns more fervently in each of your breasts than my own; and to have a practical, tangible, substantial illustration of this principle, I need only afford you an opportunity to exercise it. This I now do, and I trust I do it not in vain. If my necessities did not require it, I would not make the request; if the cause of education in this the "dark and bloody ground" of western emigration, where the blessings of education are confined measurably to the rich, and where 100,000 children, living within the bounds of our commonwealth, are said to be entirely destitute of all means of moral and intellectual cultivation, did not require it; and if it did not comport with the spirit and teaching of Masonry, to feed the hungry, clothe the naked, protect the defenseless, and educate the orphan, I would not make the appeal; but knowing these things to be true, I take the liberty of making the appeal, and I make it with full confidence of success. May my fond anticipations not fail to be realized.

For my standing and position in the ranks of our Ancient and Honorable Fraternity, I would respectfully refer you to the printed proceedings of our State Grand Bodies for the last three years; to the present and past M. W. G. M. of the State of Kentucky; to Robert Morris, editor of "American Freemason;" or to Jno. W. Leonard & Co., 383 Broadway, New York.* Any donation, however small, will be thankfully received. All communications to be addressed to Wm. S. Browne, Bloomfield, Kentucky.

I have the honor to be, with high respect,

Yours, fraternally,

W. S. BROWNE,

G. C. of G. Chapter of Kentucky.

Bloomfield, Kentucky, Jan. 22d, 1855.

* We are personally and masonically acquainted with Brother Browne, and we recommend him to the confidence of the craft as a most deserving brother engaged in a most praiseworthy undertaking.

Sending Money by Mail.

For the benefit of our readers, and for the better security against losses by mail, we will give a few directions in regard to putting money in letters.

1. Never paste bills to the paper or envelope. If they are properly folded and inclosed in the paper, and then enveloped, they will be as safe as if they were pasted, and be less liable to injury in opening the letters.

2. In sending coin, the safer way is to paste it on a card nearly the size of the envelope, and then paste a piece of strong paper over the surface of the card and coin, and fold the card in the letter, envelope and seal securely; and there need be no loss by mail. The Postmaster should be notified of the contents of the letter when it is mailed.

On and after the 1st July next, all letters containing money are to be registered at the office where they are mailed. This will insure their safety for the additional charge of five cents.
